Dear (Salutation)

Name change for the Royal London GMAP Conservative fund

Account number: XXXXXX
Your financial adviser: XXXXXX

I am writing to you because you are invested in the Royal London GMAP Conservative fund, provided by Royal London Unit Trust Managers Limited .

Royal London will change the name of the fund from 15 March 2024.

You'll see the new fund name on our valuations and statements after this date.

Old fund name	New fund name
Royal London GMAP Conservative	Royal London GMAP Diversified Bond

The fund objective, risk profile and Ongoing Charges Figure (OCF) / Total Expense Ratio (TER) will not change.

The OCF/TER represents the ongoing charges for the fund, expressed as a percentage. It is the sum of the Annual Management Charge (AMC) and all other running costs of the fund. OCF is increasingly replacing TER.

Why the change is happening

Royal London is changing the name of the fund to provide better clarity as to its underlying investments as the fund invests at least 80% in bonds (directly or indirectly).

The next steps

You don't need to take any action unless you would like to choose a new asset from our extensive range. Please speak to your financial adviser before making any investment decisions or if you have any questions about this change.

If you don't have a financial adviser, we recommend that you consider the benefits of receiving professional financial advice, which can be especially important when you need to make investment decisions. If you would like to search for an adviser in your area you can start by visiting quilter.com/financial-advice/find-an-adviser

If you have any questions about this letter, please speak to your financial adviser who will be able to help you. Alternatively, you can call or email us using the details shown and we will be happy to help. Our Customer Service Centre is open 8:30am – 5:30pm, Monday to Friday.

Yours sincerely,
